Where were the women of the so-called Auden generation during this era of rapidly changing gender roles, social values, and world politics? Women produced a rich variety of poetry but until now their work has largely been lost or ignored. In Women's Poetry of the 1930s, Jane Dowson finally redresses the balance and recovers women's place in the literary history of the interwar years. This comprehensive and beautifully edited collection includes previously uncollected poems by authors such as Winifred Holtby and Naomi Mitchison, poems which are now out of print such as those by Vita Sackville-West and Frances Cornford, poems previously neglected by poets including Ann Ridler and Sylvia Townsend Warner. An extensive critical introduction and individual biographies of each poet, poetry lovers, students, and scholars alike will find women's poetry of the 1930s an invaluable resource and a collection to treasure.
