there is a little bit of neve in all of us being a single baby boomer she talks of the cowboy days of selling shady bay real estate as well as the halcyon days when shady bay was the place to be the challenges of divorce domestic violence mental illness and business betrayal are addressed with brutal honesty the sea change to a remote tasmanian crayfish port provides yet further adventure challenge fun and interest a near death experience leaving neve without a hip for 14 months makes this a truly entertaining and compelling book for any reader the story is sometimes sad yet often funny reminding us that being true to yourself at all costs and in all circumstances will eventually crown you with wisdom contentment joy and abundance this book inspires you to become a better person at 70 and widowed ella is about to find out that blood is not always thicker than water a wise and warm hearted story about aging family and community for readers of tricia stringer and liz byrski at 70 ella s world is upended leaving her at odds with her three adult children whose attention is fixed more firmly on her money than her ongoing welfare after an argument with her son anthony she flees his adelaide home for cutlers bay a seaside town on the yorke peninsula there she befriends angie a 40 year old drifter and becomes an irritant to local cop zach he s keen to shift ella off his turf because anthony phones daily demanding his mother be sent home and besides zach just doesn t trust angie ella warms to cutlers bay and it warms to her in a defiant act of self determination she buys an entirely unsuitable house on the outskirts of town and angie agrees to help make it habitable zach is drawn to the house on the clifftop and finds himself revising his earlier opinions of ella and angie a keenly observed story about aging and its inherent vulnerability about community and chosen family about how family stressors shape us all about trust and loyalty and about standing up for yourself this is a story of the casual criminality that is required to navigate the bureaucracy and business in general sometimes this is necessary for the system to operate sometimes a mere convenience sometimes for financial gain or even just a helping hand for another human being the story covers the sloth incompetence and pure evil of the civil service and their interaction with private business it tells of what really happens in the inner workings of private businesses and their interaction with their overlords in intimate detail this is a story seldom if ever told because those that know don t write and those who write don t know it covers the wonderful world of dodgy finance and operating a large business without capital it is a story of human endurance and persistence and eventual victory of a sort the story begins with a description of life in rural queensland about thirty years after the original white settlement covers the construction of major infrastructure when rural industries were expanding rapidly and the early years of the iconic mineral industry at mount isa the author knew well at least eight men who spent a considerable stretch in jail and can say that none of them were bad men and at least three were men of higher moral standards and love of their fellow man than the general population this is in contrast to some of the very senior public servants with whom he crossed swords who were pure evil and grossly incompetent to boot
