published posthumously in 1964 a moveable feast remains one of ernest hemingway s most beloved works it is his classic memoir of paris in the 1920s filled with irreverent portraits of other expatriate luminaries such as f scott fitzgerald and gertrude stein tender memories of his first wife hadley and insightful recollections of his own early experiments with his craft it is a literary feast brilliantly evoking the exuberant mood of paris after world war i and the youthful spirit unbridled creativity and unquenchable enthusiasm that hemingway himself epitomized the mediterranean love plan unveils the 7 secrets of passion from some of the most romantic countries in the world italy france spain greece and israel most couples marry in a flurry of passion but soon find themselves wondering how do we keep love interesting fun and romantic how do we keep the spark growing for decades steve and misty arterburn offer unique ground breaking answers to these age old questions romance is much more than a date night out or a week away a passionate long lasting love requires two people who are sensually in love with life and each other in this fascinating book the authors explore research on seven activities that prompt passion then describe how mediterranean cultures practice these secrets in everyday life steve and misty also share how these fun to apply secrets have taken their own marriage from confused to confident from discouraged to delighted and how you can do it too the mediterranean love plan will help couples become more playful creative connected and romantic burning with passion that stands the test of time a stunning portrait of the complicated woman who becomes ernest hemingway s fourth wife tracing her adventures before she meets ernest exploring the tumultuous years of their marriage and evoking her merry widowhood as she shapes hemingway s literary legacy mary welsh a celebrated wartime journalist during the london blitz and the liberation of paris meets ernest hemingway in may 1944 he becomes so infatuated with mary that he asks her to marry him the third time they meet although they are married to other people eventually she succumbs to ernest s campaign and in the last days of the war joined him at his estate in cuba through mary s eyes we see ernest hemingway in a fresh light their turbulent marriage survives his cruelty and abuse perhaps because of their sexual compatibility and her essential contribution to his writing she reads and types his work each day and makes plot suggestions she becomes crucial to his work and he depends upon her critical reading of his work to know if he has it right we watch the hemingways as they travel to the ski country of the dolomites commute to harry s bar in venice attend bullfights in pamplona and madrid go on safari in kenya in the thick of the mau mau rebellion and fish the blue waters of the gulf stream off cuba in ernest s beloved boat pilar we see ernest fall in love with a teenaged italian countess and wonder at mary s tolerance of the affair we witness ernest s sad decline and mary s efforts to avoid the stigma of suicide by claiming his death was an accident in the years following ernest s death mary devotes herself to his literary legacy negotiating with castro to reclaim ernest s manuscripts from cuba publishing one third of his work posthumously she supervises carlos baker s biography of ernest sues a e hotchner to try and prevent him from telling the story of ernest s mental decline and spends years writing her memoir in her penthouse overlooking the new york skyline her story is one of an opinionated woman who smokes camels drinks gin swears like a man sings like edith piaf loves passionately and experiments with gender fluidity in her extraordinary life with ernest this true story reads like a novel and the reader will be hard pressed not to fall for mary a compelling massively researched psychoanalytic study of the inability to mourn in melville twain and hemingway and its roots in maternal loss ann douglas author of terrible honesty mongrel manhattan in the 1920s this insightful text is recommended for all students of american culture and literature choice it was the glittering intellectual world of 1920s paris expatriates in which pauline pfeiffer a writer for vogue met ernest hemingway and his wife hadley among a circle of friends that included gertrude stein f scott fitzgerald john dos passos and dorothy parker pauline grew close to hadley but eventually forged a stronger bond with hemingway himself with her stylish looks and dedication to hemingway s writing pauline became the source of unbelievable happiness for hemingway and by 1927 his second wife pauline was her husband s best editor and critic and her wealthy family provided moral and financial support including the conversion of an old barn to a dedicated writing studio at the family home in piggott arkansas the marriage lasted thirteen years some of hemingway s most productive and the couple had two children but the unbelievable happiness met with final sorrow as hemingway wrote and pauline would be the second of hemingway s four wives unbelievable happiness and final sorrow paints a full picture of pauline and the role she played in ernest hemingway s becoming one of our greatest literary figures
